

MADE A NEW RECORD

FIFTY-NINTH CONGRESS APPROPRIATED AN ENORMOUS SUM OF MONEY.

NEARLY A BILLION DOLLARS

SESSION CAME TO A CLOSE MORE QUIETLY THAN HAD BEEN EXPECTED.

Washington, March 5.—With a new record for large appropriations and far reaching legislation, the Fifty-ninth congress was brought to a close shortly after noon. The last few hours were calm, in fact, tame, by comparison with what had been expected. Long before noon Senator Gallinger's fight for the passage of the ship subsidy bill had been abandoned and the filibuster against it conducted by Senator Carmack being no longer necessary, he surrendered the floor, much to the disappointment of the galleries. Extreme fatigue, due to continued night sessions in the house during the last week, had a dampening effect on many congressmen and the usual excessive "last day enthusiasm" was confined to less than half the membership.

Despite these conditions the audiences in both houses were as large as they ever have been. Thousands thronged the corridors unable to secure admission to either branch.

One of the interesting features incident to the close of the congress was the visit of President Roosevelt who, with his cabinet, White House staff and a number of guests, occupied the president's room in the senate wing. Seated at a big table in the center of the room, he signed bills as they were enrolled and presented to him. On account of the dispatch with which business has been conducted during the past week there were only forty bills to be signed.

Received Retiring Senators.

The president was at the Capitol for more than an hour. He devoted most of the time in visiting with his cabinet, both the retiring and incoming members being present and in presenting them to personal friends of the senate and house. Retiring senators were received graciously and without exception the president expressed regret that these lawmakers were to leave the service of the country. Especially warm was his reception to Senator Spooner, who has just announced his voluntary retirement.

When the members of the committee which waited upon him with the information that congress was ready to adjourn had delivered their message, the president thanked them for the laws that had been enacted, but he added with a smile that he still had several bills that would be heard from in the future. This amounted to good natured but direct notice to congress that he had not abandoned the several recommendations for legislation which had not met with congressional favor this session.

Vice President Fairbanks and Speaker Cannon received the thanks of the minority for the impartial manner in which they had presided over the deliberations of the two houses, and both of these officers made speeches expressing gratitude at the words of appreciation.

A feature of the house session was the presentation of a club silver service of 200 pieces to General Grosvenor by his colleagues of the Fifty-ninth congress. Speeches of regret at the veteran Ohioan's retirement were made from both sides of the chamber.

In addition to the songs and stories that usually mark the close of a session, there was a beautiful picture formed by the entire house rising and waving flags and singing "My Country 'Tis of Thee," as the gavel fell at 12:15 p. m.

In the senate the last of the proceedings was the speech by Vice President Fairbanks prior to adjournment at 12:13 p. m. His remarks were applauded by the thousands of visitors and the applause continued as the audience watched with interest the farewells of senators on the floor.

NEARLY A BILLION DOLLARS.

Appropriations Made by the Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, March 5.—Statements were made to the senate and house by Senator Allison and Representative Fawney, chairmen, respectively, of the appropriations committees, and by Representative Livingston, the ranking minority member of the house committee, regarding the appropriations which have been made during the session.

The total appropriations aggregate $919,948,679.63, of which $756,622,374.27 is for the annual expenditures of the government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908. The balance of the grand total is to be used as follows:

For emergencies and deficiencies $12,439,685.26 on account of the fiscal year 1907 and prior years; $1,000,000 for miscellaneous objects, such as private claims and the like, authorized in special acts and $149,886,320 for permanent annual appropriations to meet the interest charge on the public debt, the requirements of the sinking fund, expenses of collecting the revenue from customs, redemption of national bank notes and other purposes.

The revenues of the government for 1908 are estimated at $850,000,000, which, it was stated, would leave a surplus of $20,000,000 and not a deficit, as had been predicted in some quarters.

SUPPOSED TO BE WEISS.

Young Man Commits Suicide on an Ocean Liner.

New York, March 5.—A young man, supposed to be Leopold Weiss, the missing cashier of the Budapest office of a Hamburg shipping firm, shot himself on board the Hamburg-American liner Batavia as she was leaving her dock in Hoboken bound for Europe.

The young man was removed from the ship and taken to St. Mary's hospital in Hoboken, where he died.

When the Hamburg-American liner Kaiserin Auguste Victoria arrived last Tuesday one of the passengers was a man who gave the name of Ignatz Lauffer. He was summoned before the immigration authorities for the usual investigation.

He described himself as a medical student of the University of Budapest. On the dock was H. C. Striker, New York representative of the firm by which Weiss had been employed. Striker had received a cable message alleging that Weiss was short in his accounts. He confronted Lauffer on the ship, but the young man denied that he knew anything about the case.

The officials decided to detain him, and last Wednesday a hearing was held. Lauffer had told the officials that he had a sister, Miss Irene Lauffer, in this city, and during the hearing a young Hungarian woman appeared and identified Lauffer as her brother. It was at this stage that one of the persons present picked up the suspect's hat, and inside found the initials "L. W." The girl then, it is said, confessed that her brother Ignatz had given Weiss his university passport in Budapest and had asked her to deny Weiss' identity when he arrived. The young man was ordered deported and was placed aboard the Batavia, where he was kept a prisoner.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS FAILED.

No Telling What Outcome of Car-men's Strike May Be.

Portsmouth, O., March 5.—The general feeling is one of discouragement over the failure of peace negotiations, and there is no telling what the outcome of the carmen's strike situation may be. The board of trade directors after strenuous efforts to pave a way for a settlement find their efforts all in vain. The strikers are determined that they will return to work only on condition that the company grant their request for a straight ten-hour schedule within thirty days and recognize them as union employees.

EVANS LEAVES STAND

CROSS-EXAMINATION OF NOTED ALIENIST IN THAW TRIAL IS CONCLUDED.

SAYS THAW IS NOW INSANE

DR. CHARLES WAGNER CREATES A STIR IN COURT IN ANSWERING A QUESTION.

New York, March 5.—A long stride forward in the trial of Harry K. Thaw was taken when District Attorney Jerome announced that his exhaustive cross-examination of Dr. Britton D. Evans, one of the alienists for the defense, had been concluded. Dr. Evans had been under fire since Wednesday morning last. He was immediately succeeded on the stand by Dr. Charles G. Wagner of Binghamton, N. Y., who accompanied Dr. Evans on most of his visits to Thaw in the Tombs. Mr. Jerome indicated by his questioning of Dr. Wagner that he may soon conclude with the witness.

Mrs. William Thaw is expected to be the next figure in the witness chair. With Mrs. Thaw's testimony in the defense will practically complete its case and it seems likely that the state's case in rebuttal may be begun before the end of the week.

Just what District Attorney Jerome will be able to prove on rebuttal remains quite as much of a mystery as ever. He complained in seeking a broad interpretation of the rules of evidence by Justice Fitzgerald, that if he should call any of the defense's alienists in rebuttal they might refuse on the ground of professional privilege to answer any questions put to them. This seems to indicate that Mr. Jerome's threat to call Dr. Allan McLane Hamilton in rebuttal carries with it the possibility that Dr. Hamilton may not testify, for at the time he made the examination of Thaw in the Tombs he was in the employ of the prisoner's counsel.

Not Clear to the Lay Mind.

It has not become exactly clear to the lay mind to what extent the district attorney can go in disproving Mrs. Evelyn Thaw's testimony. He has admitted that even if he could show Stanford White was out of the country at the time of the alleged experience with Evelyn Nesbit in the Twenty-fourth street studio, he would not be allowed to do so on the ground that it would be a collateral fact. It appears, however, that the prosecutor can call any one to contradict Mrs. Thaw in cases where she said she made certain statements to a third party. In this connection Mr. Jerome has indicated that he will call Howard Nesbit to testify that his sister told him Thaw treated her cruelly because she would not tell lies about Stanford White.

Dr. Evans left the witness stand subject to recall for a direct examination. The witness protected the interests of the defense quite keenly throughout his cross-examination and at all times appeared a match for the district attorney. Dr. Evans, however, admitted that Thaw had an insane knowledge of what he was doing on Madison Square park garden the night he shot and killed Stanford White. The New York statutes provide that to be exempt from punishment for crime an insane person must be so demented as not to know the nature or quality of his act or to know that the act is wrong.

In explaining Thaw's actions subsequent to the shooting—his quiet demeanor, his directions as to what should be done with his wife and who should be sent for—Dr. Evans declared that as soon as the defendant shot Stanford White the brain storm subsided and his senses began to reorganize themselves so that the man knew quite well what he was about. He also knew he was attacking Stanford White when he shot. Dr. Evans admitted, but the knowledge was that of an insane man and the act was the result of insane reasoning.

Says Thaw is Now Insane.

Dr. Wagner also declared that Thaw had irrational knowledge of what was transpiring on the roof garden. He believed the man's insanity dated from the time Evelyn Nesbit told him her story in Paris in 1903. Dr. Wagner created quite a stir in court by using the present tense in responding to a question by District Attorney Jerome as to what form of insanity Thaw "has or had." Dr. Wagner declared Thaw "is suffering" from symptoms which lead toward a melancholic state and a state of dementia praecox. When asked to describe the latter phrase, Dr. Wagner said it covered so wide a field of dementia as to be difficult of strict definition. Dr. Wagner declared Thaw's condition of mind at the time of the shooting was the result of one of the insanities of adolescence. He could not go further than this in an attempt to classify the exact form.

The district attorney again continued his somewhat puzzling tactics. His questioning of Dr. Evans seemed to have the purpose of showing that Thaw never was insane to the extent contemplated by the criminal statutes of this state. Again with Dr. Wagner he pointed toward the same end at one time and at another seemed desirous of having Dr. Wagner admit that Thaw was suffering from forms of insanity that might not be curable.

ROBBERS ON A TRAIN

HOLD UP PASSENGERS AND KILL ONE MAN AND SLIGHTLY WOUND ANOTHER.

Pittsburg, Kan., March 5.—Two men slightly disguised held up a Missouri Pacific train at 7:20 o'clock p. m., shot and killed one man, wounded another and escaped with probably $100.

There were few passengers on the train and this accounts for the small amount secured by the robbers.

Because the man killed was a miner there is a probability that the hold-up men will be lynched if caught by miners who already are searching for them, it is reported.

Lou Jeff, a negro, was the passenger killed. He was employed at camp 31 of the Central Coal and Coke company. He resisted and was shot.

W. L. Westlake of Toledo, O., who with his wife and two children had been visiting relatives in Kansas, was shot through the hand by a stray bullet that had been fired at the negro.

The men were disguised only with false mustaches and goatees, one tall man and the other of medium height. They boarded the train here at the station and began working the train as it passed the Kansas City Southern shops. They commenced at the smoking car, and one walked ahead with a big revolver in each hand and quietly asked the passengers to "shell out" to the man behind, who was closely following. They were not far behind the train auditor and followed him into the woman's coach. When they came to Jeff in the women's coach he pulled his revolver and took a shot at the foremost robber, who shot twice at him. The first shot went wild and struck Westlake, but the second struck the negro in the head and killed him instantly. They then quietly made the auditor stand and deliver, and hurriedly left the train as it entered the yards at Cornell.

REPORT IS DENIED.

No Truth in Story of Big Shortage in Sub-Treasury.

Chicago, March 5.—A report here that $1,000,000 instead of only $173,000 had been stolen from the Chicago sub-treasury was denied by Sub-Treasurer Boldenweck and the secret service officials who are working on the case. Mr. Boldenweck followed his denial, however, with the statement that the examination of the four Washington experts who came here Sunday and are now counting the funds in the local sub-treasury may show a variation from the amount made public—$173,000, but he stated that it was not anticipated that this variation, be it either more or less, will be large. When Chief Wilkie and Captain Porter left the latter's office at night both asserted the day's work had accomplished nothing.

Invalid Commits Suicide.

Minneapolis, March 5.—Rather than to linger along fighting an affliction from which he could never hope to recover, Frank Johnson, twenty-two years old, shot and killed himself as he lay in his bed at 1021 Washington avenue south. The deed was committed while a nurse was in the room. Taken unawares, she was unable to prevent the desperate man from ending his life. He suffered from consumption.

A Cooking Episode.

The people who know it all are so tiresome that the verdant simplicity of the novice in everyday affairs is absolutely refreshing. Here is an incident about a young woman who was making her first essay at housekeeping. A friend had sent her by mail a recipe for some new kind of bread, giving her directions to take a portion of the dough at a time and make it into the requisite form for baking. This seemed explicit enough, but what was the surprise of the friend to receive a telegram from the young housekeeper to this effect: "What shall I do with the rest of the dough? Please answer."

Polite.

Robecchi asked a friend to dinner and then returned home furious. "What is the matter?" said his wife.

"Do not speak to me! It is a shame! I always thought a politeness produced one in return, so I asked Dobelli to lunch."

"And has he refused?"

"Refused? I should think not. He has accepted."—La Caricaturista.

It is not a boast for us to say that our wash fabrics are a splendid representation of the styles for the coming season. They are all of that and more too for you will find every type of materials here that the very best fashion magazines are endorsing.

Our patrons are recognizing this and are making their purchases at this early date when they have the choice of the entire line.

Not the least appreciated are our fine dress gingham selling at 12½c, 15c, 17½c, 25c and up to 55c the yard.

Many will want a medium priced lawn or these in most excellent styles. Our line at 20c is entirely new in design, is one of Arnold's fabrics and can be depended upon for washing.

30c and 35c will buy the very neatest of new designs in new fabrics too. We added to this line yesterday when some excellent styles arrived.

Just bear the fact in mind that we will be pleased to acquaint you with these at any time.

MURDER CASE NEARLY ENDED.

Fate of the Strother Brothers Will Soon Be in Hands of Jury.

Culpepper, Va., March 5.—Twenty-four hours hence the case of James and Philip Strother, charged with the murder of William F. Bywaters, their brother-in-law, will have gone to the jury. This was the situation at the close of the day's session of court, when in extended arguments both prosecution and defense laid up their respective contentions as to the guilt or innocence of the defendants, as contained in the forty-five instructions they presented.

At the morning session the jury heard Edward L. Gaines, brother-in-law of the defendants, admit certain discrepancies in his testimony given before the coroner's jury.

He explained that these discrepancies were due to "an excitable, nervous nature" and that his memory may have been faulty when he testified at the inquest. Mr. Gaines was called by the prosecution with the intention of drawing from him certain information as to whether or not the window in Mrs. Viola Bywaters' bedroom, through which Bywaters is claimed by the defense to have been fleeing when he was shot was open or closed on the night of the tragedy. He admitted that his previous testimony had been to the effect that the window was closed, but qualified his statements by saying that it may have been opened by Bywaters when he (Gaines) left the bedroom to go to the lower floor. He declared that Bywaters leaped through the window without interruption, indicating that the window was open, as has been stoutly contended by the defendants.

Judge Grimley, an uncle of Bywaters; Mrs. Bessie Triplett, the dead man's sister and James Clark, his colored driver, were put on the stand but their testimony was objected to by the defense and the objections were sustained.

JURY FAILED TO AGREE.

North Dakota Woman Will Again Be Tried for Murder.

Fargo, N. D., March 5.—Unable to agree after nearly forty hours' deliberation, the jury in the Cramer murder case was discharged. At the conclusion the jurors stood 8 to 4 for convicting Mrs. Cramer for the murder of her husband.

Acting on the instructions of the court they acquitted Arthur Cramer, the sixteen-year-old son, who fired the shot which killed his father, at the command of his mother.

Mrs. Cramer will be tried again for the crime at the next term of court and is held here in jail without bail.

Billiard Tournament.

New York, March 5.—While there was nothing startling in the billiards shown by Young Calvin De Marest of Chicago in the initial game of the seventh national amateur tournament at the Liederkranz club he defeated J. M. S. Rolfs of Philadelphia, decisively by a score of 300 to 199.

Weather

Forecast—Fair tonight and Wednesday colder tonight.

When grasshoppers are substituted for shrimps those who do not like shrimp will be glad of it.

BUTTE suffered along without its telephone service, and even existed when the newspapers were forced to quit, but now that the ban has been placed on free lunches there is no hope.

FERGUS FALLS decided to pay the price fixed by the board of arbitrators and will buy the city water works system for $77,863 and will borrow the money from the state to make the purchase with.

SENATOR SPOONER's resignation as a member of the national law making body will live things up over in Wisconsin and there is scarcely a politician in the state who is not a candidate for the cast off shoes of the retiring statesman.

As we predicted Congressman Lindbergh was not "chloroformed" as is evident from the fact that one of the first things he did after being sworn in was to take up the case of the Wadena post-office embroglio and straighten it out, and as a consequence Charley Eastman will serve out his time instead of being removed. It doesn't pay to judge a man too quickly, for in nine cases out of ten where that is done another guess is coming.

The telephone service of European countries have some curious facts connected with their management as has been developed by an expert engineer who has been making a study of the matter. A rule for Paris operators prohibits their marrying without the permission of their superintendent, and prohibits their marrying a policeman in any event. In Stockholm operators can work only five years and are then paid a bonus to quit. The wages in London is 84 cents per week while learning the business, being raised to $1.82, and after two years in the service they can reach as high as $4.36 per week.

QUAINT QUEBEC.

The Old World Charm That Crowns This Picturesque City.

Lean, delightful old Quebec, with her gray walls and shining tin roofs; her precipitous, headlong streets and sleepy squares and esplanades; her narrow alleys and peaceful convents; her harmless antique cannon on the parapets and her sweet toned bells in the spires; her towering chateau on the heights and her long, low, queer smelling warehouses in the lower town; her spick and span caleches and her dingy trolley cars; her sprinkling of soldiers and sailors with Scotch accent and Irish brogue and cockney twang on a background of petite bourgeoisie speaking the quaintest of French dialects; her memories of an adventurous glittering past and her placid contentment with the tranquil grayness of the present; her glorious daylight outlook over the vale of the St. Charles, the level shore of Montmorenci, the green Ile d'Orleans dividing the shining reaches of the broad St. Lawrence, and the blue Laurentian mountains rolling far to the eastward, and at night the dark bulk of the citadel outlined against the starry blue, and far below the huddled housetops, the silent wharfs, the lights of the great warships swinging with the tide, the intermittent ferryboats plying to and fro, the twinkling lamps of Levis rising along the dim southern shore and reflected on the lapsing, curling seaward sliding waves of the great river! What city of the new world keeps so much of the charm of the old?—Henry Van Dyke in Scribner's Magazine.

STAMPING ENVELOPES.

Queer Ways Some Folks Have of Doing This Simple Act.

"The only way to stop people from plastering a stamp at any old place upon the envelope except the right one is to do as is done in England. There a letter which does not have the stamp in the right position is cast aside and handled only when all other mail is sorted and exchanged." This idea was advanced by a postal clerk quoted by the Philadelphia Record. "We often lose considerable time because of these letters," continued the clerk, "for often we have to stop and turn over an envelope to find the stamp. We do not mind so much the love sick youth or maiden who places the stamp on the center of the envelope, because a stamp so placed can be seen at a glance, but it is chiefly with the foreigners that we have the trouble. These people invariably put on a stamp at any but the right place, and you would be surprised to know how they do it. Why, I have seen letters upon which the stamps have been placed on the back of the envelope at the point where the society girl will put her monogram in sealing wax. Others when they have to pay, say, 5 cents postage will buy five one-cent stamps and put one on each corner of the envelope, with the remaining one acting as a seal upon the back."

An Exciting Escape.

Prince Kropotkin, the Russian revolutionist, once made an exciting escape from a fortress prison, in St. Petersburg. After two years in the prison he had been removed to the jail hospital, where plans were matured by his friends for his flight. He was allowed to walk for an hour each afternoon, guarded by armed sentries, in the grounds. A line of spies outside maintained a system of signals to notify the prince when the adjoining streets should be clear. When all was well a friend in a kiosk opposite the gates played upon a violin. After one or two false starts the violinist burst into a mad melody, and the prisoner, flinging off an outer garment, leaped for it. Sentries tried to stab him with their bayonets; others hesitated to shoot, believing that they could catch him. A carriage with a racing horse in the shafts was waiting. Into it he sprang, and they left at a gallop. His beard was cut off, his clothes changed, and he spent the first hours of his hiding in the best cafe in St. Petersburg.

AN INDIAN MYSTERY.

The White Woman Who Fought With the Tonto Apaches.

The following story was told by one of Arizona's early pioneers:

In 1864 Dr. Alsap and Lord Duppa, well known pioneers, were prospecting with a party in the Bradshaw mountains on the Hassayampa creek. One morning the party separated for the purpose of hunting. In going up a canyon, in which they were separated from their companions by high mountains, Duppa's detachment was attacked by a large band of Tonto Apaches. The whites gradually fought their way across the ridge with the hope of rejoining their companions. During the advance Duppa, who was stationed behind a rock, noticed that he was the particular mark of an Indian with a bow. Several arrows had fallen at his feet, and one struck him in the arm. Raising his rifle, he took aim, and just as he was touching the trigger the supposed Indian cried, "Don't shoot!" in good English, but it was too late, and the body fell over with life extinct. Soon after the two parties succeeded in forming a junction, and the Indians retreated, leaving their dead.

Out of curiosity the party returned to the place where Duppa killed the supposed Indian and found that it was a white woman, evidently about thirty years of age and dressed in all the paraphernalia of the Apaches. Investigation was made, but no trace of her former whereabouts could ever be obtained.

TAKEN FOR TWO
MORMON ELDERS

Such was the Experience of Presiding Elder Copper and a Brother Preacher

BRainerd DISTRICT GROWING

Elder Copper Tells of Incidents of Recent Trip to the Canadian Border

The Rev. Dr. Edgar K. Copper, presiding elder of the Brainerd district came down on the M. & I. Saturday, after an extended trip to the Canadian border and back, visiting many towns between, during the two week he has been gone.

TAKEN FOR MORMON ELDERS

All's well that ends well," said the Rev. Copper, handing to THE DISPATCH reporter the following clipping taken from the Akeley Tribune, with a smile: "At Walker, last Friday evening, two gentlemen alighted from the train and commenced a tour of the town. They had the appearance of clergymen and it wasn't long before a rumor was afloat that two Mormon elders had landed in town. Mayor Kinkel, ever alert to the interests of Walker concluded that he did not want any Mormonism in Walker, busied himself watching their movements. The chief of police also got busy. It is said there was a hurry-up meeting held at George Crow's drug store, the purpose of which was to give the disciples of Brigham Young about 10 minutes to 'skidoo'."

ALMOST A MURDER

"I came as near to seeing murder committed as I ever did in my life, also, continued the Rev. Dr. Copper. "From the story as related by Dr. Copper, it appears that the stage driver at International Falls had taken the price of their fares and return from three Frenchmen, and knowingly or otherwise had left them at one end of the journey, and they had to hike some 40 miles. The Frenchmen waited for Mr. stage-driver's return fully armed and mad with rage. Meeting the driver face to face they accused him of tricking them, and mad with rage one of the Frenchmen began to count and flourish a big knife. When a Frenchman is enraged and commences to number, it is generally, Look out! As the driver saw the Frenchman coming nearer in his rage knife in hand, he instantly whipped out of his hip-pocket a revolver, saying, "I'll put an ounce of lead into you, if you don't put that away." The sight of the revolver sobered the excited Frenchman, and the matter was settled afterward, amicably.

ORGANIZES THREE NEW CHURCHES

Asked concerning the growth of the Brainerd district, Rev. Copper informed THE DISPATCH that during the trip he had organized three new Methodist churches. Lots have been purchased at International Falls, a church organized, and in a little while a preacher will be there. Another has been organized at Little Fork as in the case at International Falls. Yesterday Rev. Copper preached at Walker, organized a church and in a couple of weeks a preacher will be there who has already been appointed to that place and will commence building a church on some choice lots which we have purchased in that town.

"Thus far, on every charge where I have gone during this last quarter, large additions to the memberships have been reported and several new churches will be dedicated in the near future. I have several letters from different towns asking me to come and organize other Methodist churches over the district."

STRALS OR ALLURES A PREACHER FROM CANADA

While not posing as a ministerial thief, Rev. Copper informs THE DISPATCH, that while at Fort Francis preaching to the Canadians, he met a bright young Canadian Methodist minister up in that region who seemed very much interested in Minnesota and America generally, who, after the conversation, said that he would like to become an American citizen and join the Methodist itinerant. "I simply coaxed him over," said Dr. Copper, "and why not? We have many Canadian preachers on the district and they have proven themselves capable preachers and pastors. You have, I believe, several of them occupying the pulpits of Brainerd and I do not think that any of their churches doubt their efficiency."

WHERE IS JOHN SMITH?

Settler Near Lake George is Missing and Neighbors Fear that He has Met With Some Fatality

John Smith, an old soldier and who made his home in a shack on Lake George some miles above Emily in this county, is missing and no trace of him can be found, according to reports that come to this city from that neighborhood. The last seen of Smith was about Christmas time and as his associates did not see or hear from him for some weeks a visit was made to his cabin and it was found deserted with nothing to indicate what had become of the owner. Some pension papers were found in the house which should have been executed and sent to Milwaukee before Jan. 4th, 1907, in order that his pension for this quarter be sent him. Smith served in the war as a private in Company K, 7th Regiment, Indiana volunteers, and drew a pension of $10 per month. It is of course possible that he left the place for the winter without informing his neighbors and that he will turn up all right in the spring, but from the condition of things, and the finding of this unexecuted pension voucher, it is feared that he has perished in some of the storms that he has been caught out in and that his fate will not be known until the snow goes off in the spring. He was a man well along in years and lived alone. Any one who can throw any light on the matter or enlighten the public as to his whereabouts will confer a favor by communicating with THE DISPATCH.

TWO LICENSES WERE HELD UP

City Fathers Drew the Line Strictly on the Matter of Renewing Liquor Licenses

ORDERED FORTY NEW METERS

Every Private Light Consumer Having Over Two Lights Must Pay Meter Rates

The city council showed very plainly Monday night that they were back of Mayor Wise in his crusade to stop the sale of liquor to minors. When an application for renewal of the license of Nels Nelson came up City Attorney Polk rose and filed an oral objection to the granting of the license. He stated that Mayor Wise had employed a special officer to investigate the various saloons and had received authentic information that the applicant had sold liquor to minors not once but several times, and that he was not a fit man to be permitted to have a license.

Attorney Ryan appeared in behalf of the applicant and urged that Mr. Nelson had not had his day in court as he was entitled to; that he had been in business three or four years and had $3,000 invested in the business and that it would be rank injustice to refuse him permission to continue. Mr. Nelson, he said had had no opportunity for defense and if refused a license had no opportunity of appeal. He believed it rank injustice to act on hearsay evidence of a man who might have been an enemy of Mr. Nelson or been put up to make the charge by some saloon keeper who wanted him put out of business.

Alderman Fogelstrom, who had seconded the motion of Alderman Baker to grant the license here withdrew the second, but Mr. Baker refused to withdraw the motion.

Mayor Wise rose and asked a hearing. He stated that the offense had occurred not once, but five separate and distinct times since he furnished placards forbidding minors to frequent saloons and at the same time furnished the saloon men printed copies of the laws of the state of Minnesota covering the offense charged.

Attorney Ryan did not care if there had been ten dozen reports of violations, he should be given the license and if he then violated the law the license should be revoked.

Chief McGiven stated to the council that the police had had more trouble with Nels Nelson's place than any other in the city.

Mr. Polk rose to remark that if Mr. Ryan were not a hired lawyer he would be the first man to object to the granting of the license.

Alderman Baker then withdrew his motion to grant license and a motion was made to postpone action on the application until the next regular meeting of the council. The suggestion was made that the matter be laid over until a special meeting of the council to be held immediately after the hearing of the case against Nelson in municipal court Thursday of this week, but this was not even put to a vote, the members declaring that they did not propose to put themselves to that trouble for the benefit of Mr. Nelson. On the roll call on the matter of postponing action Alderman Zakariasen, Drexler and Twohey voted no, declaring that they believed in finishing the matter right then by refusing to grant the license. Alderman Bouck, Turcotte, Farrar, Fogelstrom and Baker voted yes and the application was laid on the table until next regular meeting.

The license of Theines & Hagan was also laid over because there was no receipt from the city treasurer presented to show that the money had been paid for the license. Betzold & Hughes, of East Brainerd were granted a license.

All the members of the council were present when the president called that body to order in regular session Monday night.

The usual pay rolls were allowed and the regular reports of the city officers were presented and approved.

Alderman Fogelstrom brought up the matter of the Laurel street bridge in Southeast Brainerd and after a long discussion the question of the legality of building the bridge on railroad ground was referred to the city attorney and the matter of the advisability of repairing the bridge or improving Norwood street was left to the entire council with an agreement to meet at the bridge at 3 o'clock next Sunday afternoon to look the condition of the bridge, etc., over.

Alderman Twohey wanted to know where the long looked for report of the audit of the books was. It was stated that at last accounts the report was held up by reason of lack of clerical help in the St. Paul office of the auditing firm. It was also stated that the work of installing the new system of books had not been completed and that Mr. Holmes would return next week to complete that work and then it would probably be possible to find out the cause of the delay of the report.

Alderman Twohey also asked information as to the halters alleged to be muzzles seen on some dogs and was informed that they did not comply with the law and that the officers would not so consider them.

The matter of a new horse for the fire department came up and the fire committee was instructed to look one up and report to the council. It was talked that the horse now in use, which is good for lots of ordinary service yet, be turned over to Superintendent Baker for the use of the light department, doing away with the livery and dray bills paid at present. This would also give the city a trained fire horse which would be available in case of emergency.

The matter of street paving was taken up. Clerk Spencer stated that practically every property owner on North Broadway wanted that street paved clear to Bluff avenue the coming summer. He was requested to take the matter up and have a petition before the next meeting of the city council.

The matter of paving Sixth street from Oak to Willow and of Oak from the St. Paul tracks was taken up and a report from City Engineer Woolman was read showing that it would take 390 cords of stone to pave that portion of those streets to a width of 35 feet.

Alderman Zakariasen stated that the owners of Oak street property were not in favor of paving. The paving of South Broadway from Laurel to Oak was also discussed but no action taken.

The purchasing committee was authorized to buy 40 electric meters ranging from 5 to 40 amperes in size, and they will be placed on the lines of all private consumers who have more than two lights. This, it is understood, includes all incandescent arcs as well as other lights.

The purchasing committee was directed to purchase a second wagon for the fire department and sell the old wagon.

Alderman Fogelstrom urged the purchase of a steam street roller which would also furnish power for the steam crusher and for moving it from place to place. The matter was referred to a special committee consisting of Alderman Baker, Fogelstrom and Drexler to which Mayor Wise was also added, and the committee was instructed to meet with the county commissioners Tuesday, March 5th and ask their co-operation in the matter.

A motion was made and passed asking the president, who had asked to be excused and left the meeting because of another engagement, to appoint a special committee of three to be known as park commissioners and the city attorney was asked to look and determine if there was any ordinance defining their duties as such and if not prepare one for next meeting.

ACTUALLY CURES CATARRH

H. P. Dunn Co.'s Faith in Hyomei is so Strong They Sell it Under Guarantee

It is one thing to claim, another thing to back up the claim by a statement that if it is not proven true, there will be no charge for the service or the goods.

It is this way that H. P. Dunn & Co. sell Hyomei, for they have so much faith in its powers to cure all forms of catarrh and bronchial troubles, that they give an absolute, unqualified guarantee with every outfit that if the remedy does not cure, the money will be refunded.

Hyomei is based on nature's way of curing catarrh. It contains the concentrated healing oils and gums of the pine woods, prepared in such form that they can be brought into your own home. It gives the health advantages of the Adirondacks in such form that you can be cured of catarrh and affections of the nose, throat and lungs while at home or at work.

A complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1, and extra bottles, if needed, may be obtained for 50c.

With Hyomei you can cure catarrh pleasantly and easily at small expense, with no risk of the treatment costing a penny unless it cures.

HALTERS ARE NOT MUZZLES

City Officials Declare Many of the Dog Muzzles are not in Accordance With the Ordinance

The city officials emphatically state that many of the so-called dog muzzles are merely an evasion of the law. The ordinance provides plainly that muzzles must be such that a dog cannot bite. It is nothing uncommon to see a dog with one of the so-called muzzles lying in the street gnawing a bone and so far as preventing them biting are concerned are a farce. When asked regarding the matter at the council meeting Monday night Mayor Wise stated that dogs wearing such affairs would not be considered as muzzled by the officers and would be treated as unmuzzled dogs.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Mother of W. H. Everest Wins $1,000 in Prize Contest by Getting Subscribers For a Daily Paper

Mrs. M. A. Everest, of Sauk Rapids, on Wednesday received a check from St. Louis for $1,000 which was awarded to her as one of the prize winners in a contest for securing subscribers for a daily paper. Mrs. Everest is well known to many of THE DISPATCH readers, having resided in this county for many years at Crow Wing, and is the mother of W. H. Everest, rural carrier on route three south of this city. Although 86 years old she went out and secured more subscribers than any other person in the United States, and there were many contestants. At the time of the world's fair at St. Louis Mrs. Everest received a trip to the fair with all expenses paid for her reward in a similar contest. The lady makes her home at Sauk Rapids with her daughter and son-in-law, W. H. Fletcher, who is chairman of the board of county commissioners of Benton county, her husband, M. D. Everest, having died some years ago.

AMUSEMENTS

"Red Feather"

Cheridah Simpson will make her first appearance here under the management of Jos. M. Gates, in the famous comic opera, "Red Feather" tonight at the opera house. Miss Simpson has achieved great individual success under the management of Henry W. Savage, scoring emphatic triumphs in "King Dodo," "The Sultan of Sulu" and "The Prince of Pilsen." Reginald DeKoven of "Robin Hood" renowned posed the music; Charles Klein, author of "The Music Master" and "The Lion and The Mouse" wrote the book and Charles Emerson Cook contributed the lyrics of "Red Feather." The story of the opera is a romantic one, incidentally comic, and the music is stirring in choruses and the lyrics attractive. Among the musical numbers that have become especially popular are "To Arms," "To Call the Mine," "The Merry Cavalier," "The Garden of Dreams," "The Rose and the Breeze," "The Sword Shall Win the Day," "They all Looked at Me," "The Humorous Ghost," "A Prince of Good Fellows," "The Little Milliner," "Lessons in Verse" and the madrigal, the gem of the second act. The company is said to be the best singing and acting light opera organization in the country, while sumptuousness is the only word that will adequately describe the production, both in regard to scenery and costumes.

Mary—Dark circles under the eyes indicate a sluggish circulation, torpid liver and kidneys. Exercise and Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well and beautiful. 35 cents, tea or tablets. H. P. Dunn & Co.

bill introduced in the house by Burdette Thayer of Spring Valley. Regulations of telegraph charges is made in a bill introduced in the house by S. D. Peterson of New Ulm. The bill makes the maximum charge 25 cents for telegrams of ten words or less between places in the state and 2 cents each for each additional word. A bill to remove the charter limitation on the annual appropriation for the police department and to authorize the city council to fix the maximum yearly expenditures for this department was introduced by Senator Henry McCall of St. Paul. The bill is general in its terms, relating to cities having a population of 50,000 or over, but is essentially a St. Paul bill and is intended to provide means for raising the pay of the members of the police force. The McCall bill gives the council the power to fix the amount to be appropriated for the police department.

To Prevent Cruelty to the Soil.
The "prevention of cruelty to the soil" is the object of a petition and bill presented in the senate by President Eberhart, who received it from Chicago with a request that it be presented to the legislature for action. The cruelty contemplated by and protested against in the bill is that of placing upon the soil the burden of raising the same crops on the same tracts of land for a period of years without giving the soil a chance to recuperate, which can be accomplished by a change of grain. The bill makes it unlawful for the owner or cultivator of any lands in the state to plant wheat, oats, barley, speltz, rye, flax, buckwheat, corn or other cultivated crops on any tract of land which has been used for any of those products for at least two years preceding. Any person violating this law is made punishable by a fine of not less than 10 cents nor more than 25 cents for each acre so planted.

A bill relieving registered pharmacists from the payment of an annual fee of $2 was introduced by Senator H. T. Witherstone of Rochester. To make up the deficiency in the funds used for the maintenance of the state pharmacy board, the bill carries an annual appropriation of $5,000. The bill also contains a few minor amendments to present laws relating to pharmacists. A bill to prevent the election of a majority of the officers of an incorporated village, on a wave of popular sentiment on some particular subject, without due consideration of the qualification of the candidates was introduced by Senator Ole O. Canestorp of Elbow Lake. Under the present law, all of the officers are elected for one year, while under the Canestorp bill, the clerk and president will be elected for two years, and in alternate years, while the three trustees will each be elected, one each year for a three-year term.

FOR THE HOMEMAKER

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT ISSUES PROCLAMATIONS RESERV-
ING FOREST LANDS.

SAVED FROM CORPORATIONS

LUMBER TRUSTS MIGHT HAVE GOT LANDS BEFORE CON-GRESS COULD ACT.

Washington, March 5.—Seventeen million acres of forest lands have been added to the forest reserves of the United States by proclamations issued by President Roosevelt, just made public. Thirty-two forest reservations are created or increased in area by these proclamations.

The following memorandum by President Roosevelt bearing on the subject was made public at the White House:

"These forest reserves were determined upon and the preparation of the necessary papers ordered some months ago—in two-thirds of the cases some years ago—in the exercise of the duty imposed upon me by act of congress of March 3, 1891. The utmost care and deliberation have been exercised in deciding upon the boundaries of the proposed reserves; in all but a very few cases long continued and detailed field examinations have been made, and in the remainder examinations amply sufficient to justify the proposed action.

"The necessary proclamations under existing law now come before me and the question is presented whether I should refrain from acting under the existing law because there is now under consideration by congress a proposal to change the law so as to require congressional action upon the establishment of such forest reserves.

Deemed Action Imperative.

If I did not act, reserves which I consider very important for the interests of the United States would be wholly or in part dissipated before congress has an opportunity again to consider the matter; while, under the action which I propose to take they will be preserved; and if congress differs from me in this action it will have full opportunity in the future to take such position as it may desire in the discontinuance of the reserves, by affirmative action, taken with the full opportunity for considering the subject by itself and on its own merits. If by any chance land more valuable for other purposes than for forest reserves is shown to have been included in those reserves, I shall forthwith restore it to entry.

"Failure on my part to sign these proclamations would mean that immense tracts of valuable timber would fall into the hands of the lumber syndicates before congress has an opportunity to act, whereas the creation of the reserves means that this timber will be kept in the interest of the homemaker; for our entire purpose in this forest reserve policy is to keep the land for the benefit of the actual settler and homemaker, to further his interests in every way, and, while using the natural resources of the country for the benefit of the present generation, also to use them in such manner as to keep them unimpaired for the benefit of the children now growing up to inherit the land. This is the final and exclusive object, not merely of our forest policy, but of our whole public land policy.

OF BENEFIT TO THE PUBLIC.

John D. Rockefeller Says He Has Something in Mind.

New York, March 5.—A remark which John D. Rockefeller made to several reporters before starting for Augusta, Ga., led to the publication of a report that he contemplates another large gift to the cause of education or philanthropy. In excusing himself to the reporters, Mr. Rockefeller said:

"I have matters of great importance to discuss with my son, matters of more importance to the public in the future than any chance remarks I might make just now."

"Do you mean that you contemplate the announcement of another bequest to the cause of education?" was asked. "All I can say," Mr. Rockefeller replied, "is that I have something in mind which I believe will be of great benefit to the public."

TRAVELING MAN A SUICIDE.

Kills Himself in Crowded Waitingroom at Des Moines.

Des Moines, Ia., March 5.—C. M. Mitchell, who was traveling for a publishing house at Marshalltown, Ia., shot and killed himself in a crowded waitingroom in the heart of the city. The depot was full of women and children at the time and Mitchell, kneeling down near a bench, fired a bullet into his body. Despondency due to ill health and the death recently of two relatives is said to be the cause of the deed.

Flight of People Continues.

Naples, March 5.—The mountain in the province of Potenza above Montemurro, which for two days past has been slipping down into the valley, appears now to be moving much more slowly. The flight of the people, however, continues, many fearing a repetition of the terrible earthquake of 1857, in which 300 persons perished.

A Wonderful Record.

As made up by improved and exact processes Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteroposition and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. It cures the headache, periodical headaches, the dragging-down distress in the pelvic region, the pain and tenderness over lower abdominal region, dries up the pelvic catarrhal drain, so disagreeable and weakening, and overcomes every form of weakness incident to the organs distinctly feminine.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, the makers of which are not afraid to print their formula on the bottle wrapper, thus taking their patrons into their full confidence. It is the only medicine for women, every ingredient of which has the strongest possible endorsement of the most eminent medical practitioners and writers of our day, recommending it for the diseases for which "Favorite Prescription" is used. It is the only put-up medicine for women, sold through druggists, which does not contain a large percentage of alcohol, so harmful in the long run, especially to delicate women. It has more genuine cures to its credit than all other medicines for women combined, having saved thousands of sufferers from the operating table and the surgeon's knife. It has restored delicate, weak women to strong and vigorous health and vitality, making motherhood possible, where there was barrenness before, thereby brightening and making happy many thousands of homes by the advent of little ones to strengthen the marital bonds and add sunshine where gloom and despondency had reigned before.

COMPANY HELD TO BLAME.

Did Not Properly Safeguard Its Passengers.

New York, March 5.—The coroner's jury which has been investigating the wreck of Feb. 16 in the Bronx on the New York Central railroad as a result of which twenty-three persons met death, returned a verdict finding "that the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad company did not take all the necessary precautions to guard its passengers at the point and consequently were culpably negligent, and that the responsibility for the existing conditions seems to be divided between the construction and operating departments."

When Coroner Schwannecke received the verdict he turned to the jury and asked:

"Can you gentlemen find any individual responsible?"

"There is our verdict," replied the foreman.

"Then," answered the coroner, "I will hold the entire board of directors of the New York Central and also the president and will parole them until morning, when I shall accept bail."

When the coroner had announced his decision to hold the directors and the president of the road, attorneys for the road objected vigorously without avail. Coroner Schwannecke declined to say what charge he would lodge against the officials held by him. Assistant District Attorney Smythe as he was leaving court remarked that now he could present the case to the grand jury.

The directors of the New York Central are: Chauncey M. DeWitt, William K. Vanderbilt, Frederick K. Vanderbilt, Samuel F. Barger, J. P. Morgan, H. McK. Twombly, W. H. Newman, Charles C. Clarke, G. S. Bowdoin, William Rockefeller, D. O. Mills, James Stillman and George F. Baker. W. H. Newman is president.
